Inspiring Support for Sonoma Valley Hospital

Dave Pier is the Executive Director of the Sonoma Valley Hospital Foundation. Located in beautiful Sonoma Valley, the Foundation serves to raise the funding necessary to have the Sonoma Valley Hospital grow and thrive as it strives to anticipate and meet the healthcare needs of this community. Hired in March of 2015, Dave is responsible for all aspects of the successful operation of the Foundation with a primary focus on fundraising, marketing and public relations, board development, and financial oversight.

With a work history in the nonprofit arena, Dave spent the first 20 years of his career in the youth development field. The Boys & Girls Clubs of Sonoma Valley is a nonprofit, after school youth development organization serving children ages 6-18 years. The Club provides services to more than 40% of Sonoma Valley's youth. Dave served as the CEO in his 8 years with the Club. During his 12 years at Hanna Boys Center, Dave worked in operations, with his final six years serving as the Residence Manager. Hanna is a privately funded residential facility that serves 100 troubled boys with residential, counseling and educational services.

Dave earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology from College of Notre Dame in Belmont, CA and also earned at Master of Arts degree in counseling psychology from Sonoma State University.

A native of Sonoma county, Dave lives in Sonoma with his family. Dave is active in his local Rotary Club and served on the board for four years. He currently serves on the Board of Trustees at The Presentation School. He served on the board of the Sonoma Valley Fund, a subsidiary of the Sonoma County Community Foundation, and is a current member of the Sonoma Valley Health Roundtable. He enjoys the outdoors, running, cycling, diving, gardening, traveling, playing guitar, and family time.
