

Joshua Rymer, Ex- Officio Director

Mr. Rymer was a Vice President and Partner with the Boston Consulting Group for twelve years; working in New York, London and San Francisco. Mr. Rymer advised companies in the financial services, consumer products, health care and high technology industries. He headed the firm's West Coast Financial Services Practice and co-authored an early book on how the Internet would transform the Financial Services Industry ("The Information Superhighway and Retail Banking").

Mr. Rymer joined Charles Schwab & Co. in 1999 to become Senior Vice President for Strategy, working in both the Retail and Institutional Brokerage businesses. Then, from 2006 to 2011 Mr. Rymer served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Terradatum, Inc., a fast growing software services company serving real estate brokerage clients nationwide.

Since 2011, Mr. Rymer has worked as an independent consult developing sustainable business strategies and organizational efficiency designs for fast-growing organizations. Mr. Rymer has worked with several non-profit organizations, including: Crown Family Philanthropies, Greenbelt Alliance; The Outdoors Empowered Network, Education Outside, The Greenbelt Alliance, The Ray Dolby Brain Health Center and The Miriam and Peter Haas Foundation. Mr. Rymer has served on several boards including: Sonoma Valley Hospital District (Chair), Community Foundation Sonoma County, Education Outside (Chair) and the Sonoma Valley Fund (President Emeritus).

Mr. Rymer earned both BA and BS with honors from the University of Pennsylvania and The Wharton School. He went on to get an MBA degree from Stanford's Graduate School of Business.

Mr. Rymer and his husband of twenty-four years have lived in Glen Ellen since 1998.