

Alexis Alexandridis, MD

Term expires on December 31, 2021

Alexis Alexandridis MD is a general surgeon with a focus on breast health and breast cancer care. She is an independent practitioner in Sonoma and the medical director of Sonoma Valley Hospital Wound Care Clinic. She received her education all across the country, starting at Kalamazoo College for a B.A. in Health Sciences, then New York Medical College for her M.D. and then to Oregon Health and Sciences University for internship and residency in General Surgery. She is a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons and an active member of the American Society of Breast Surgeons. She practiced in Grants Pass, OR, for 6.5 years prior to hanging her shingle in Sonoma in the fall of 2017. In Grants Pass, she was Chair of the Asante Three Rivers Medical Center Department of Surgery, a member of the AllCare Health IPA Quality Committee, and led the Three Rivers Medical Center Infection Control Committee for 5 years. She was also a member of the Grants Pass Surgery Center Board of Directors and their Treasurer for 2 years. In 2018, she completed a Physician Executive Master of Business Administration program thru Auburn University's Harbert College of Business. She lives with her husband Ryan, children Mason, Isabela, and Atticus, their cat Boo Radley, and an ever-growing collection of carnivorous plants.